Who are You?

TOPIC: CSI Forensic Science: Fact or Fiction

When: 6-7:30pm Tuesday, July 20

Where: National Forensic Science Technology Center (NFSTC)

7881 114th Ave. N, Largo

Speaker: Kevin Lothridge, CEO, NFSTC (www.nfstc.org)

RSVP: www.pieraquarium.org/event/csiscicafe or e-mail estehle@pieraquarium.org

Put yourself in the shoes of a CSI in training and discover for yourself if what you see on TV is reality!

Kevin Lothridge, CEO, National Forensic Science Technology Center, will introduce us to the facility and training it provides supporting the justice community through innovative research, programs, evaluation of the latest technologies, forensic science education and laboratory quality reviews at this intriguing and interactive science café.

Bring your imagination and the questions that you always wanted to ask CSIs Katherine Willows, Nick Stokes, Greg Sanders or Dr. Raymond Langston!
